Great Interest Being Taken In the Baseball Club Dance.

The Marlon is a sturdy little craft, but she wasn't built for moose. The pull swam straight on for a while, towing the boat after him, and "playing moss" generally with everything in reach. Just in the height of the fun he gave a sudden turn to starboard, put straight about, and, with full speed on in both engines, let himself out for shore, the steamer dragging along behind. All the passengers offered free flows in one direction, and not to and from the bay, as the current flows in the crevices of the promontories, clefts and gullies, and the water is driven out. Where the current goes, however, it was impossible to discover, although it was obvious that it was not far from itself with the problem.

Repeated earthquakes between the 16th and 17th centuries (that of February 1687 destroyed two towns and more than 200 villages) could have changed the theory. The theory that the current is simply filling up these crevices must be wrong, for the water would have filled up long before this in the course of the earthquakes.

Quite recently two English scientists examined the current, and gave as the reason for its existence the fact that the water runs in one direction can be explained by the fact that the waters rush down the channels, and that the heated water forms the hot salt water springs which are the cause of the current. It may be on the coast of the island. The existence of such a submarine current is explained by the peculiar formation of the coast, but no positive proof of this is given.

So a few evenings ago, when Mr. Bulwinkle came home from the office he took a long look at his wife and bounded up the front steps to the porch, where his wife was awaiting him. "I love you," he said, "and I don't want to leave you here all alone. You have the man mow our grass and fix up the yard. It looks like it won't do any more harm - how it looks!" he calmly replied.

Mr. Bulwinkle stopped as if he had been struck by lightning and looked back at his wife in amazement. "You deceived him?" Then he muttered, "He deceived him." In her excitement she winked in her eyes, and, going up to her room, she laid down to rest.

"All right, dear, I'll quit," he said. And he did.

Noting New Today.

There were no new developments in regard to the anticipated offer from Mr. Bulwinkle's old employer, the gas plants. It was rumored that $1,000,000 would be offered for the company, but the report lacked verification.

Duluth People Being Cured of Consumption in West Superior.

I had consumption since the middle of last April from the typhoid pneumonia. My left lung was affected and left shoulder pains. Coughed all the time day and night. Could hardly get my breath; seemed to catch me in my left lung. I was so weak and tired I wanted to lie down all the time. My stomach and bowels hurt so I could not have my clothes buttoned, or bear the weight of a sheet on me at night. Now these troubles are all gone. I could no more at night since I began treatment with DR. S. CLAY TODD, 1224 Tower avenue, West Superior, Wis. I feel stronger every day, and am very glad to recommend Dr. S. Clay Todd to the sick.

SPRINKLING WITH OIL.

Pennsylvania Railroad Testing the New Dust Allay. Philadelphia, Aug. 27.—The Pennsylvania Railroad company intends to sprinkle crude oil on various parts of its system so as to prevent the rising of dust, which has been a source of complaint to all managers of railroads for a number of years. Early in the season the company began experimenting with the sprinkling of oil on the road bed and on each side of the track on the West Jersey railroad. From the start the plan has proved a success, and has been found that on the roadbeds, which are composed of gravel, it will keep down the dust as well as turn off the water.

The success the experiment has met with on the West Jersey & Seashore railroad has led the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad company to try

AN EARLY ARRIVAL

President McKinley Arrives in Cleveland Sooner Than He Was Expected.

SILENT RECEPTION

Will Remain in Cleveland Until Wednesday of the Coming Week.

Cleveland, Aug. 27.—President McKinley arrived in Cleveland by his early arrival from Buffalo this morning. He became the guest of the people of this city this morning, and will remain until next week Wednesday. The reception of the president was not as elaborate as had been planned. There was no presidential salute fired by the naval reserves and the revenue cutter Andrew Johnson, the cannon of steam and steel craft did not belch forth in deafening sounds to welcome the president; the banners and flags did not flutter in the breeze in honor of his coming.

There was no reason for the absence of all this ceremony, which had been planned on an extensive scale. It was lacking because the presidential party arrived in Cleveland several hours ahead of schedule time, or rather the time anticipated by those who had planned the local reception. The Comanche, which brought the presidential party from Buffalo, arrived inside of the Cleveland breakwater at 2:30 p.m. There she lay, the anchor until later, when she steamed into the harbor and made fast at the dock of the Pennsylvania company.

Mr. Hanna was somewhat surprised to know that elaborate preparations had been made for the reception of the president, and said he had advised against it yesterday by telegraph, stating there was no certainty of the president's arrival. He asked that the naval reserves and the Tippecanoe club be apprised of the arrival of the Comanche, and invited the newspaper men aboard the yacht.

The presidential party was scattered about the boat in groups of twos and threes. President and Mrs. McKinley were amidships looking across the muddy Cuyahoga at the city of Cleveland. Col. M. T. Herrick. The president's appearance gave indication of perfect health.

The bitterest disappointment prevails over the surprising manner in which the president and his family entered Cleveland. The Tippecanoe club and the naval reserves planned a most elaborate reception, which included a parade about the downtown streets in the evening. There was the usual shouting in Unit camp last night, but as far as known no one was hurt.

STRIKE LEADERS ENCOURAGED. President Dolan Succeeds in Closing Several More Mines. Pittsburgh, Aug. 27.—The miners' leaders are more encouraged than ever over the prospects of an early settlement of a strike in favor of the diggers. Efforts are now being directed to the mines along the Pennsylvania railway and the central field of Pennsylvania. District President Dolan addressed a meeting at Claridge, Westmoreland county, last night, and the result was that the men decided to quit work. This means the closing of two lines of the Westmoreland Gas Coal company, the largest company on the Pennsylvania railway.

President Dolan says the work will be systematically pushed and expects soon to have all the mines idle. He says six mines have been closed in the central field and that work will be suspended in the morning within a short time. Sheriff Lowry went to Bunola this morning accompanied by several deputies and ordered the strikers off the public roads. An injunction was served on Capt. Walker, who is in charge, and also on several other men. The operators are preparing to start their mines, but it is not likely that any move to resume will be made until after the convention and Labor day.

TO CRUSH THE AFRIIDS. British Will Send a Big Force Against Them. Simla, Aug. 27.—The government has decided to send an expedition in large force against the Afriids.

THE PORTLAND PRISONER. Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Aug. 27.—Smith, the man on the steamer Portland, is apparently Frank Novak, a storekeeper at Walford. The man murdered by him and the body burned was Edward Murray. Novak's relatives claimed the body was Novak. The insurance companies stopped the collection of the policies and placed a detective on the trail with the above result. Some operators are preparing to start their mines, but it is not likely that any move to resume will be made until after the convention and Labor day.

LADIES' GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP. Minneapolis, Minn., Aug. 27.—Miss Beatrice Hoyt of the Shinnecock Golf club, Southampton, L. I., defeated Miss N. C. Sargent of the Essex County club, Manchester, in the tournament for the ladies' golf championship here today 5 up, 1 to play. Miss Hoyt is present champion.

THE MEDITERRANEAN PIRATES. Madrid, Aug. 27.—The Portuguese bark Farie has been attacked off the coast of Morocco by pirates belonging to the Beni Kabilis. The captain and four of the crew of the bark were carried off.

ODEN GOBLIT DEAD. Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 27.—Oden Goblit, 45, of New York, is dead. He was captured on board his yacht, the Mayflower. The deceased had been ill for about two months past.

A BLAZE AT STILLWATER.

Flour Mill, Omaha Freight Depot and Cars Burned. Minneapolis, Aug. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—A special to the Journal from Stillwater, Minn., says that $75,000 or more loss was occasioned this morning by the burning of the Florence flour mill, the Omaha freight depot and several cars of merchandise. The fire started in the mill from spontaneous combustion. The loss of fall goods in the depot and cars was very severe.

POSTAL ROBBER CAUGHT.

Alleged Looter of Denver Office Caught at Mine Center. Mine Center, Ont., Aug. 27.—William Hostetter was yesterday arrested by Canadian officials at Bell City, a mile from here, and turned over to a United States postoffice inspector from Denver, charged with the robbery of the Denver postoffice a year ago.

Hostetter came to Mine Center five months ago and invested in gold mines here, living with the wife and two children. He is well known in Denver and about the country. He was one of the owners of the insurance of the mine, and was registered here as a man of means and good character. He will be extradited at once and taken to Denver.

STRIKERS MARCHED.

Deputies Will Not Stop Them Until Court Decides on Recent Arrests. Pittsburgh, Aug. 27.—For the first time since Monday the striking miners camped about the De Armit mines resumed marching. About 4 o'clock this morning about 200 campers lined up and started to visit the miners' houses at Center, Unity and Claridge. When the cross roads were reached the marchers encountered twenty deputies, but no attempt was made to stop the men. The chief deputy, Young, stated that there will be no interference with the marchers pending the decision of the court in the case of the three men arrested and charged with interfering.

The marchers then proceeded on their way and were successful in persuading three foreigners to strike. The marchers say fifty men went to work today. This is an increase over yesterday, when only twenty men were at work. There will be a big demonstration at Camp Isolation tonight, and the marchers will participate. It is expected 1500 persons will be in line.

Stabtown, the plague spot at Unity, at which negro railroad laborers have been holding high carnival for several weeks, still will go up in flames and smoke before the day is over. Twenty deputies have been deputed to assist Constable Korsten in applying the torch, and if there is any resistance from the negroes the strikers stand ready to take the law into their own hands. There was the usual shouting in Unity camp last night, but as far as known no one was hurt.

SENATOR CHANDLER EXPLAINS.

Canadian Extra Duty Clause Was Surprisingly Inserted. Boston, Aug. 27.—In a letter to the Herald, published this morning, Senator William E. Chandler explains the construction of the clause of the new tariff law imposing a 10 per cent extra duty on all foreign products coming through Canada into the United States. Senator Chandler holds that the legislation was passed by writing it as new matter into a conference report, where it was adopted by both houses of congress without being noticed by more than those persons engaged in the scheme.

The senator points out that the conference committee went beyond their powers when they inserted this important amendment in the clause of the law about only five words of which the senate and house had disagreed. The wording so much affected New England trade, Senator Chandler says, that each of his representatives may be father calling upon to state what, if anything, he knew about it, and why he did not try to defeat it.

Continuing, Senator Chandler says: "For myself, I regret that I did not notice what the conferees had done. Senator Cannon in senate asked whether they intended to do anything but settle differences between the houses, whether they intended to put any new matter into the bill, and Senator Allison replied: 'That of course they did not. If the provisions were inserted and no attention called to it in the report, it was passed without being noticed.'

Having had experience with conference reports, which should have warned me to read every word of this report, I have no excuse to offer for not doing so. I hope to be forgiven by my constituents, but I shall never forgive myself."

LUETGERT IS ANGRY

Accused Murderer Luetgert Is Much Incensed at a Newspaper Picture.

TALK TO THE JURY

Wants to Explain About His Sausage Factory--A Letter From Germany.

Chicago, Aug. 27.—At the trial of Luetgert, the alleged wife murderer today, L. A. DeLestre, one of the first four jurors sworn in, was discharged by agreement by counsel. DeLestre's wife is suffering from nervous prostration, induced principally it was claimed, by worry over her husband's presence on the Luetgert jury, and for that reason he was excused. This left five jurors yet to be selected. Luetgert is very angry over a newspaper picture showing his forehead and eyes, and calling attention to his "evil eye." The big sausage maker says eloquently today as he gazed at the work of the artist. Luetgert earnestly asks his demand to be permitted to address the jury during the trial. His obstinacy in this respect is troubling his counsel, who fear the prisoner will create a scene which will be prejudicial to his case. Luetgert declares that he can explain matters to the jury concerning his sausage factory better than his counsel or any other person.

Luetgert has received a letter from D. J. Van Der Ahe, who is searching in Germany for Mrs. Luetgert. What the contents of the letter are the prisoner refused to say beyond the statement that he was looking for his wife. He said that the letter would be introduced as evidence during the trial.

After several voircaires were passed a jurymen was found acceptable to both sides. He is George M. Holburn, a machinist.

Two experts on anatomy are making for the prosecution a careful examination of bones found in Luetgert's sausage factory.

The examination of venenome proceeded rapidly and during the afternoon the prosecution tendered to the defense a number of questions, which would make the jury complete. The four were: A. W. Hewitt, clerk; S. S. Barber, clerk; F. N. Homer, merchant.

The two Extremes.

Mr. Silver is losing sight of his companion Mr. Wheat. There is a big change somewhere. When stumping they were both on equal terms. Now the wheat is growing up and the silver is melting down to a stump. It is dangerous to take chances in making changes. Grain speculators and politicians are always talking changes and making changes. Some are short, others are long. They go to extremes. But the long and the short of it is that we are making extremely low prices on groceries, quality considered. Competitors: Watch us grow. The "Viking" is still in the race.

WAS BADLY BROKEN UP.

Mrs. Hilma Larsen Overcome By the Verdict.

"My God! What shall I do?" was the exclamation that burst from the lips of Mrs. Hilma Larsen in the municipal court last evening when the verdict of the jury, finding her guilty of abusing her 13-year-old sister was announced. After giving vent to this burst of despair she sat with lowered head while the formality of dismissing the jury was gone through with. When she was called on to receive sentence, Mrs. Larsen broke out in an incoherent appeal to the court and then, overcome by her feelings, fell in a hysterical fit. Medical aid was summoned, and she was taken to her home in the ambulance.

The case was hotly contested, and lasted all the afternoon, it being 6:30 when it was given to the jury. After a deliberation of fifteen minutes on the part of the latter, a verdict of guilty, with a recommendation to mercy, was returned. The court suspended sentence and ordered the discharge of the defendant.

Ice Men Arrested.

A complaint against C. Melby and M. J. Davis of the ice firm of Melby & J. Davis, entered in the municipal court yesterday afternoon by Inspector Baker, of the health department, charging them with peddling domestic ice not labeled as required by law. Melby and Davis appeared this morning before the issuance of the warrant and pleaded not guilty. The trial was set for Aug. 29, they being released on their own recognizance.

Divorce Cases Increase.

The calendar for the September term of district court shows a large increase in the number of divorce cases. The usual number of divorce cases of this calendar is from twelve to fifteen, which is a very fair number for this city of this size. This time, however, the number is increased to twenty-two, which will pretty well fill up the two days allotted each term to divorce cases.

OH! MY EYE!

I Fear I Shall Lose It.

It hurts so. Seems as if I could not stand it another minute. I have put the medicine the doctor gave me in it, and it does no good, and the doctor says I must have an operation—my eye taken out.

Then do as Mrs. Bertina Tolofson, of Duluth, and Mrs. G. W. Berge, of West Superior, Wis. They got immediate relief from the pain and soreness and are now doing well, and their eyes are saved.

Their surgeon wanted to perform an operation.

TO GET TOGETHER

That is the Object of This Afternoon's Special Council Meeting.

MR. GAY DESIRES IT

No Proposition to Be Submitted—General Conference to Be Held.

The mayor this morning issued a call for a special meeting of the council at 3 o'clock this afternoon, to talk over with Mr. Gay the question of purchasing the gas and water plants. It was understood at the city hall that Mr. Gay contemplated making a new offer at a figure in the neighborhood of $1,400,000, as stated in The Herald yesterday. Mr. Gay's attorneys said this morning, however, that Mr. Gay had not made up his mind on the question, and that he had desired the special meeting rather for the purpose of "getting together" than to listen to any determined proposition. There was to be no proposition submitted this afternoon, but simply a conference with Mr. Gay, his attorney J. L. Washburn, and the Hartmans.

The mayor says he is not averse to conferring, but that he objects strongly to having the council delegate its powers to any committee.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Brief Session Now Being Held in This City.

A session of the United States court is being held here and will continue through today and tomorrow. Judge Lechen, Henry D. Lang, clerk of the circuit court, Deputy Marshal J. M. Leach, and J. M. Dickey, assistant United States district attorney, arrived here today. Court opened this morning at 10 o'clock. The session is being held here for the purpose of permitting the entry of decrees in a number of matters. This morning a decree was entered in the case of E. M. Fowler et al. vs. W. P. Vandervort et al., declaring the validity to the east 1/4 of northwest 1/4 and west 1/4 of section 34 of township 35-N-17-R-10, owned by the United States, to the Adams Mining company's property, conveyed by the United States to the said E. M. Fowler et al. vs. W. P. Vandervort et al., and in the case of J. L. Kirwin et al., has been appealed, and a formal order directing the papers to be sent to the court of appeals was entered.

A number of second citizenship papers were issued.

Court will be in session tomorrow. It is possible that a decision will be entered in the case of the Central Trust company, the Duluth Gas and Water company.

Are Well on Their Way.

A letter received from W. A. Foote, of this city, who recently returned from the Klondike in company with a number of other Duluthians, states that they arrived at Alabaska Landing, Northwest territory, Aug. 29, and would start down the river from there on the 22nd, so it is probable that they are now well on their way to the Yukon. Alaskan gold fields. He said that all of the members of the party were well.

Preparing His Report.

Professor N. H. Winchell, state geologist, C. S. Grant and A. H. Elting returned from a geological survey expedition in the northern part of their homes in Minnesota. Professor Winchell said this afternoon that the trip was made for the purpose of getting some facts for use in his forthcoming report. He will be compelled to make at least one more trip before completing the work now on hand.

No Evidence at Hand.

The funeral of M. J. Conlon, who died at St. Mary's hospital, Tuesday noon, from the effects of a fall on the head, took place this morning. Services were held at the cathedral at 8 o'clock. Rev. Corbett officiated. The remains were interred at Calvary cemetery. Coroner Klund will hold no inquest, having been called on to consult with the county attorney. There is no evidence at hand at present other than this will probably be submitted to the grand jury.

Comptroller Eckels Coming.

James H. Eckels, ex-comptroller of the currency, is a passenger on the North Land, and will take supper at the Spaulding this evening. Mr. Eckels is on his way to St. Paul, where he probably leave for there on the Eastern Minnesota tonight.

A Demurrer Entered.

In the stockholders' liability case of Luther Mendonhall against the Duluth Dry Goods company, et al., the defendant, W. P. Warner, this morning filed a demurrer on the grounds that there is a defect of parties defendant, as not all of the stockholders are made parties defendant, and that there are no facts in the complaint sufficient to constitute a cause of action against the defendant.

In the case of the Ironton Land company against W. W. Rutenbach, as sheriff and L. D. York, the plaintiff, this morning filed notice of a motion for a further stay of proceedings for twenty days from Aug. 29. Judge Elsenberg issued an order for the defendant to show cause why the stay should not be granted.

ward abolishing the liquor habit,

which the speaker regarded as the main cause of domestic unhappiness.

The W. C. T. U. was accorded by the speaker the first place in the movement against the saloon.

Then followed the address of Dr. Mary McCoy on "How to Retain the Innate Purity of Childhood." She based her conclusions on a careful study of the moral needs of childhood. The cultivation of a high ethical standard of thinking was urged as a cardinal principle of the moral education of the child. She pressed herself as strongly opposed to corporal punishment, either at home or in school, and based her position on such deductions from medical research.

Miss Marie C. Boehm, in her address, delivered in the evening, asserted that the United States government is in the liquor business, inasmuch as it recognizes it in its legislation and places its seal on spirits. The way to get at the base of intemperance is through the people. The people are responsible for the liquor traffic, that is the voting people, among whom women cannot be counted. The people are responsible for the ravages of liquor far exceeding that of the drug traffic. The people are responsible for the grave every year, 100,000 men, the ravages of liquor far exceeding that of the drug traffic. A VERY DISMAL FAILURE.
Was the Attempt to Start the Champion Mines.

Pittsburg, Aug. 27.—The first attempt to start any of the coal mines in this district was made at the Champion mines of Robbins & Co., near McDonald, Pa., on the Panhandle railway, this morning. Two carloads of foreigners gathered up from about Pittsburg were sent to the Champion mines about daylight and put to work loading slack into cars. The miners heard of the arrival of the new men and the men and women marched on the mines. The men were attacked with stones and clubs and driven from the cars. The women followed them in and the foreigners, without resisting, fled to Noblesville. The women then returned to McDonald and dumped the slack that had been loaded from the cars. They were met by 1000 strikers, armed with clubs and stones, and a short distance from the mine, where they are now encamped watching for the return of the new men. The company says they are determined to load the slack, and a conflict is expected if the new men are brought back to the mine.

THE KENNEL TRIALS.
Belle Wins First Prize in the Field Events.

Browns Valley, Minn., Aug. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—The field trials were concluded today. The Northwestern Amateur stakes being run to a finish. It was warm and dry, with a pleasant breeze. Fox birds were found. In the final Belle ran with Belle Noble and Alice K. with Clark's Duke. Belle outran Belle Noble and had quite the best of the heat. Belle Noble flushed a covey and Belle pointed a single. No birds were found by the other brace, but Alice was superior in the manner of hunting and sly. Belle and Alice K. were called up for the final. Their work was about the same as in their previous heats, Belle ranging out further. The puppy ran well, but lacked the experience of the other dogs. After returning to town the Judge, W. S. Bell, of Pittsburg, announced the awards, as follows:

Belle, first; Alice K., the winner of the puppy stake, second; Belle Noble, third; Clark's Duke, fourth. The last named is a pointer, the other three English setters. Belle and Belle Noble are owned by C. M. Griggs, of St. Paul; Alice K., by Dr. L. A. Bacon, of St. Paul; Clark's Duke, by O. B. Clarke, of Minneapolis.

Most of the sportsmen are returning home, but a few are going north to attend the trials at Morris, Minn. Belle, Alice K. and Belle Noble will probably be sent north to compete for further honors.

Saturday will be your last opportunity to take advantage of the special low prices on the finest line of Preserved Fruits, Canned Fruits and Canned Vegetables ever exhibited in the city.

Mrs. Stinson, agent for the largest wholesale grocery house in the United States, is exhibiting these goods and taking orders for all delivery at SUTTON & MAAS' Grocery, 118 and 120 West Superior street. A cordial invitation is extended to all to come and see her display.

VETERANS' LEADERS

The Grand Army Continues Its Work of Electing Its National Officials.

A PRIVATE SESSION
Alfred Lyth, of Buffalo, Elected Senior Vice Commander—Other Officials.

Buffalo, Aug. 27.—The second day's session of the Grand Army encampment was opened at 9:15 o'clock this morning. Gen. Clarkson presided. The session, like that of yesterday, was strictly private. Guards with muskets were stationed at the doors, and only G. A. R. men with the countersign were admitted. The election of officers from senior service commander down was taken up under the order of business.

Alfred Lyth, of Buffalo, was elected senior vice commander. Maj. A. J. Smith, of his post, presented his name to the convention. The nomination was seconded by Col. Shaw, commander of the department of New York. The adjutant general was instructed to cast the vote of the encampment for Mr. Lyth.

When the nominations for junior vice commander-in-chief had been declared closed, Congressman Pickler, South Dakota, who was chairman of the committee on pensions at the last congress, endeavored to nominate a man from his state. Commander-in-chief Clarkson ruled that he was out of order, but Mr. Pickler insisted. On a vote the ruling of the commander-in-chief was sustained. Mr. Pickler yielded with great reluctance.

Dr. David Mackay, of Dallas, Tex., a veteran of the Seventy-ninth New York Highlanders, was elected unanimously surgeon general of the Grand Army.

The first ballot for junior vice commander did not result in a choice, but later the adjutant general was instructed to cast the vote of the encampment for Francis B. Hollen, of Hartford, the candidate of the Naval Veterans' association.

Rev. Frank E. Buner, pastor of the First Methodist church of Chicago, was unanimously elected chaplain-in-chief. Commander-in-chief Shaw of the district of New York, offered a resolution providing that the last Sunday in May be observed as Memorial day, and spoke at length in support of it. The resolution was defeated.

The new officers were installed and then the encampment adjourned at 2:30 p. m., to meet at Cincinnati next year.

The usual courtesy of the encampment was extended to the Woman's Relief corps, and a committee was admitted to the floor to make the report of the auxiliary organizations. The committee consisted of Mrs. Bagely, of Ohio, national treasurer; Miss Brock, of Illinois, past national secretary; and Mrs. Clara Burleigh, of Massachusetts, national of the W. R. C. home, that state, and past department president of Massachusetts. The report contained a synopsis of the work done by the Woman's Relief corps.

G. A. R. LOOKING AHEAD.

Engaging Rooms For Next Year In Cincinnati.

Cincinnati, Aug. 27.—Telegrams have been received already from Buffalo by the leading hotels engaging quarters for the national encampment of the G. A. R. here a year hence. The first telegram received was by the Burnet house engaging parlors and thirty rooms for the Detroit posts. The Columbia post, of Chicago, secured parlors and rooms for 150 members at the Grand hotel, which place rooms were also reserved for the commander-in-chief and staff. The St. Nicholas, Emory, Gibson and other hotels also received orders.

The third national encampment of the G. A. R. was held in 1893. At that time the hotels received no orders a year in advance. The chamber of commerce, local organizations and individuals propose to spare no efforts or expense in the preparations for 1908.

MINNEAPOLIS BANK CLOSES.

Not a Failure But Simply Going Out of Business.

Minneapolis, Aug. 27.—(Special to The Herald.)—Pending a decision as to whether it will go into liquidation, the Bank of Minneapolis closed its doors today. The directors will make a decision this afternoon. Without much question the bank was insolvent. It had a capital of $100,000 and its deposits, $100,000. The bank was in the hands of a receiver, being bankrupt, but has simply gone out of business. The Phil Scholz, embroiled some three years ago, followed by the suicide of Cashier Boverly, was a blow from which the bank never recovered.

CHICKEN STEALING FOX.

A Dog Catches One on Minnesota Point Today.

A silver gray fox that has been feasting on chickens in the neighborhood of Lower Lake avenue was captured this morning by Ned Culver's fox terrier. The fox, which at the time had a chicken in its mouth, was first seen crossing the walk leading to the Culver Bros. warehouse. The dog at once gave chase and the fox, which was followed by the dog, a fierce battle was fought within hearing but out of sight of the crowd that soon gathered, but the dog proved the victor and soon hauled a large fox almost dead. The animal is being carefully nursed and it is thought he will live. Chickens have recently been mysteriously disappearing from the neighborhood, and circumstances point strongly to the fox as the thief. It is not known how the fox could have reached this thickly settled part of town and lived there for any considerable length of time, as he evidently has done, without detection. Some who have seen him are of the opinion that the fox did not come from the forest, but that he is somebody's pet that has wandered away from home.

AMERICAN PARTY.

New Political Creed Launched
at St. Louis—Some of Its Principles.

St. Louis, Aug. 27.—The new American party organized in this city yesterday. In addition to the national placard adopted, it recommended the following statement of principles as a platform for the several states:

1. All public utilities belonging to the state shall be placed under such supervision and legislative control as will best insure equal benefits to all the people.

2. The existence of employment of private armed bodies shall be prohibited.

3. The initiative and referendum to be used in the formation of laws and ordinances affecting the rights of the people. We approve of direct legislation by the people.

4. The best ballot system is to be adopted for all elections, in order that the elector may exercise his franchise
freely and without undue influence.

5. We favor such changes in the registration and election laws as will insure to every lawful voter the right to cast a ballot at every election and to have the same correctly returned.

6. The registration of voters shall be completed on the same day by a system
of school and neighborhood meetings
conducted by due public notice at such an hour as will not conflict with general business purposes; not less than thirty days prior to the day of election.

7. Neither the state, county or municipal shall contribute to the support
of any institution under denominational
control.

8. We insist upon the taxation of all property, real or personal not owned by the state.

9. We favor equal suffrage for both sexes, based upon educational qualification.

10. Neither the state, county or municipal shall contribute to the support
of any institution under denominational
control.

11. We demand that all hospitals, reformatories and other institutions
occupied by persons of either sex,
voluntarily or involuntarily, whether public or private, or semi-private, be
at all times subject to public inspection.

12. Labor must be recognized as the direct source of wealth. Its rights must be maintained equally with that of capital. All industrial pursuits should be fostered and encouraged in every possible way and the better to prevent strikes and lock-outs, co-operation between employers and employed should be the rule to be encouraged and adopted. All wage-earners should be protected against competition of alien inhabitants, skilled or unskilled and the importation of contract labor into the state should be prohibited.

13. "Trusts" and "combinations" should be prohibited by immediate and appropriate legislation.

14. Municipal government should be taken out of the province of small politics and placed in the hands of the people. Public utilities and other necessities existing within the province
of city government such as gas, electric lights, water, street and elevated
railroads and bridges, ferries, etc.,
should be owned and operated by the city, subject to the general laws of the state.

15. The burden of taxation, caused by intemperance and crime, should be regulated and lessened as much as possible by wise and equitable legislation.
We favor local option throughout the state, and the government to restrict the importation of spirituous or mal-
luous, by way of original packages
under the guise of interstate commerce,
into any state which deems it wise and proper to exercise its powers in the control of, or the prohibition of, the liquor traffic, this being one of the rights reserved to the states by the federal constitution.

16. Convict labor should never be brought in competition with free labor.
Contract labor should be absolutely prohibited.

ments Suggested—Association Elects Officers.

Cleveland, Aug. 27.—The opening session of the National Bar association
was devoted to suggestions from members on commercial law, and under this head Walter S. Logan, of New York, offered a comprehensive report urging
the enactment of legislation to enable a creditor of a debtor to prevent his squandering his property, to secure the interposition of the courts to protect his rights, although the debt may not yet be due. The convention instructed the committee to consider the suggestion and report at the next annual meeting.

The special committee of three to
which had been referred a resolution
introduced by the committee on judiciary, relative to the removal of cases reported that it thought that amendments to the law should be asked of congress to provide an appeal from the United States circuit court of appeals
from interlocutory orders of appointment of receivers and interlocutory orders
granting temporary restraining orders.
The convention approved the report and instructed the committee appointed to present the matter to congress.

An important paper on bribery was read by Adolph Moses, of Illinois. He called attention to the decision of the supreme court in the Counselman case, 12 E. S. 348, which caused congress to amend the interstate commerce act in 1893 to effectively grant
immunity against the self-incrimination of a witness in testifying before a court. Mr. Moses argued that an examination be made of the various
statutes, national and state, to determine whether they offer sufficient protection to the witness and to prepare a uniform statute for the various states.
Nominations for officers for the ensuing year were reported by the judicial council as follows: President, William Wirt Howe, of New Orleans;
secretary, John Hinkley, of Baltimore;
treasurer, Francis Rawle, of Philadelphia; executive committee, Alfred Hemenway, of Boston; Charles Claiborne,
of St. Louis; Charles M. Gregory, of Wisconsin.

The nominees were elected without discussion. Hiram F.
Stevens was chosen vice president for Minnesota.

Judge R. S. Taylor of Indiana offered
a resolution on the subject of trusts,
which aroused considerable interest,
but was adopted without discussion, as follows:

"Resolved, that the committee on jurisprudence and law reform be requested to submit to the association, at its next annual meeting, a report upon the subject of existing laws in relation to trusts and combinations in business,

ONE TRUTH IN SEVEN.

The Best the Local Piano Dealer Could Do Today.

While I do not propose to annoy the people at the head of the lakes with a daily rehearsal of "alleged facts" originating by a silly local piano dealer, I will briefly refute a few statements made by the gentleman and published in this morning's paper.

He says: "First—The pianos offered by me have never belonged to an assignee. Many of the instruments I am now offering for sale, as I have repeatedly reiterated, are from the assigned stocks of W. C. Munger, of St. Paul, and W. F. Edholm, of West Superior, and that is the reason I am selling them at less than actual cost prices. I could not afford to sell them at the figures placed upon them were it not for the fact that the courts have ordered that they be turned into money regardless of cost. As the representative of the W. W. Kimball Piano Company I have some of their pianos which I am also offering for sale, and which Mr. Munger never had in his stock, for the reason that he never handled their goods. Mr. Edholm, however, was the agent for the Kimball company in West Superior and Duluth, and a portion of the instruments in question offered for sale are those of the Kimball make from his assigned stock."

Second—He says: "The Munger stock was sold in the Twin Cities." Some of the stock was retailed there, but not all of it. The balance of the stock is now here and I am selling it.

Third—He says Mr. Munger is now doing a good business in St. Paul. I stated this "fact" in my opening announcement and it pleased me to be able to do so. The gentleman who has to do with the sale by me of Mr. Munger's former bankrupt stock?—

Fourth—He says: "The Munger stock was sold in the Twin Cities." Some of the stock was retailed there, but not all of it. The balance of the stock is now here and I am selling it.

Fifth—He says I am "now trying to sell new pianos that came from Chicago over the Northern Pacific." For once (one time in seven) the gentleman is telling the truth. As I have before stated, I have a few pianos for sale that are not assignment instruments, and had them shipped here from Chicago in order to complete the assortment which, with both the assignment stocks alone, did not contain all of the various styles.

Six—He says I am "asking as much or more than the same pianos have been selling for in other places." The low prices which I quote are a sufficient answer to this statement.

Seven—He says: "We have files of daily newspapers from other cities that will prove every assertion we make." This statement is as silly and nonsensical as it is untrue, for any sane person that would give it a moment's thought would see that it would be impossible for him to prove any one of the above half dozen untruths he has advanced as facts, or the one truth he has referred to in his fact number five in the manner stated.

So much for the local dealer's alleged "facts." Now here are a few "COIT RECORD FACTS" which are many times more authentic than "old newspaper files."

We have a New England piano for $38, another of the same make for $35, another of the same make for $32, a Smith & Co. piano for $25, one C. A. Smith & Co. piano for $18, one Briggs piano for $12. These are all upright pianos of well-known standard makes; all in perfect condition, and are all from the bankrupt stock of W. C. Munger. The actual cost to Mr. Munger was much greater than the above quoted prices.

We have on our floors for sale brand new pianos at $168, $174 and $182, of a better grade than those pianos which have been sold here and are being offered for sale by local music dealers for from $200 to $400.

Call and examine our instruments and prices.

CAUSE OF THE LEAK.

Character of Lake Bottom Not Correctly Ascertained.

It has been ascertained in the course of the search for the leaks in the intake pipe at Lakewood that a strong undercurrent exists that works the pipe into and fro, and especially during storms, causing the joints to loosen. It was thought when the plans were prepared that the bottom was sandy, beyond a short distance from shore, in which case the pipe would have been sufficiently anchored with the covering of sand it was designed to put over it. It has been found, however, that the rock bottom extends beyond the point where the mouth of the intake will be located. This will render it necessary to adopt some other device for holding the pipe in place. City Engineer McGraw thinks that three anchor cribs filled with trap and lowered over the pipe at intervals will accomplish the purpose.

Street Railway Picnic.

The street railway employees' picnic was well attended yesterday, and Lester Park presented a lively scene. The morning was quickly spent, the picnic really not beginning until afternoon. The field contests brought out considerable competition, and any amount of fun. There was a dance at the Forest Home pavilion, and it continued until the last car left.

Pressure on the Pipe.

The recorded pressure on the force main pipe between Fifty-fourth and Fourth avenues east, was raised to 230 pounds the night yesterday afternoon. Twenty pounds under the pressure required for the test. The actual pressure at the lower end of the pipe was fully 250 pounds.

MORE FACTS ABOUT FAKES!

Those who are enjoying the exposing of the pretended bankrupt sale of Pianos, after proving beyond a question that the Munger bankrupt stock of Pianos was sold out in the Twin Cities last year--

FIRST--

The people of Duluth will remember that a local dealer advertised in 1896 under glowing headlines that he had been appointed by the assignee to close out the balance of the Munger stock.

SECOND--

One of the reasons why the bankrupt sale falls so flat is that the people in this vicinity do not want the same dose twice.

THIRD--

It is generally known that W. F. Edholm was selling Pianos in this vicinity on commission and had no Pianos to turn over to the assignee.

FOURTH--

The schedule of assets on file at West Superior of W. F. Edholm are between $1200 and $1300, and not a single Piano listed or turned over to the assignee.

FIFTH--

Then no court officer can find any pianos to put into the hands of an itinerant agent to close out for the benefit of the creditors of a man who failed without owning any Pianos.

We Are Continuing to Sell

FIRST--

THE BEST PIANO the market offers for $125--a brand new Piano with stool and scarf.

SECOND--

We won't call it a $400 Piano out of a bankrupt stock. It's just a good $125 Piano. No dealer can sell any better piano for the price.

THIRD--

We will try and show you why it is wiser to buy a reliable, high grade Piano than any cheap, machine-made instrument, no matter how unscrupulously recommended.

FOURTH--

We will point out several reasons why you should avoid fake sales and buy from some reliable dealer.

FIFTH--

We will show you a stock of the best known and most celebrated Pianos in America, and if we can't sell to you, we may give you a few pointers on how to buy somewhere else.

WHEELING PARADE

Labor Day at the West Virginia City Cheered Up the Strikers.

AID FOR THE MINERS

Many of the Strikers Are Hungry and Shoeless--Strike Doings.

Wheeling, W. Va., Aug. 28.--Today is Labor day and one in which Wheeling and its vicinity made demonstration in favor of the striking coal miners. In the parade which moved at 10 o'clock, the miners were given the head of the column, and there were over 1000 of them in line, with representatives from all the mining districts of the Upper Kanawha and Eastern Ohio. Their banners and devices were picturesque and unique, both in make and sentiment, the chief burden of their declaration being against the "pluck me stores" and "government injunction."

Throughout the parade which included all the trades unions in the Middle Ohio valley the same sentiments were found on the banners. At the picnic on the state fair grounds are booths where help for the miners can be given and many a dollar ordinarily spent for food and drink is being given to the miners' fund. It is all needed, too, for destitution is staring the strikers in the face, and at Wheeling, where the miners are nearly all hungry.

In this city there has been ample relief, but in small places where nearly all the inhabitants are miners, there is much misery and want. The output of coal from the Kanawha valley has been cut to almost nothing by the strike, but in New River it is increased, nearly all the strikers having gone to work today.

WILL TRY TO START UP.

Pittsburg and Chicago Gas Coal Company's Mines to Attempt It.

Pittsburg, Aug. 28.--The first mine in the Pittsburg district to be started in the attempt to break the big coal strike will be those of the Pittsburg and Chicago Gas Coal company, on the Kanawha division of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad. All the arrangements have been completed, and the company is in operation, but the company prefers to have the old men return, and for that reason has decided to defer action for ten days.

A sufficient number of men have already been engaged, but there are no accommodations for them at present. The company has taken steps to secure possession of its mines, and during the day all the tenants were served with a legal notice to vacate within ten days. The company has leased all the available property in the vicinity to prevent the strikers camping about the mines, and President Van Emden says the men who go to work will be given ample protection.

THE DEPUTIES OUTWITTED.

Strikers Get Up Early and Gain Some Accessions.

Pittsburg, Pa., Aug. 28.--The campers at Plum creek executed a flank movement upon the deputies on guard there shortly before daylight, and before they were discovered they had marched all around the vicinity of the houses and induced eight men to stay at home. When the deputies arrived they attempted to stop the marchers, but the strikers paid no attention to the orders, and when they had finished their work, marched back to camp. There is much suffering at Camp Isolation on account of the lack of clothing and food. Many of the men are bare footed, having worn their shoes out marching and doing missionary work. Superintendent De Armit visited a number of the striking miners at their houses early this morning, but failed to induce any of them to return to work.

ELKANOR MINERS QUIT.

Dubuoi, Pa., Aug. 28.--The Elkanor miners joined the strikers this morning and, with the Reynoldsville miners, are marching 600 strong to Walston and Adrian. The Elkanor miners were originally very much opposed to striking, but such strong pressure was brought to bear that they quit work. The Reynoldsville miners camped at Elkanor last night, and the marchers left that place at 4 o'clock this morning.

BACK FROM ARCTIC REGIONS.

Jackson-Hamsworth Expedition Returns to England.

London, Aug. 28.--The British steamer Windward which left England on June 10 last for Franz Josef Land to bring back from the Arctic regions the members of the Jackson-Hamsworth expedition, who have spent three winters near Cape Flora, passed Aberdeen today on her return trip and signalled that all were well on board.

ONLY GET SINGLE FEES.

Washington, Aug. 28.--R. J. Tracewell, comptroller of the treasury, in a decision rendered today holds that the deputy marshals in districts of California, Colorado, Washington, Montana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nevada, Oregon, Wyoming and Idaho are not entitled under the law to double the compensation for the fiscal year 1898, allowed similar officers in other districts. Deputies are allowed for compensation 75 per cent of the fees collected by the marshals, but the comptroller in his decision today holds that for the fiscal year 1898 the 75 per cent applies only to single fees and not to double fees.

TRACED TO THE KOOTENAI.

Ishpeming's Missing Assessor Has Been Finally Located.

Ishpeming, Mich., Aug. 28.--(Special to The Herald).--Clarence R. Ely, the city assessor and broker who disappeared last May after being seen in Chicago, has been located. John Walters, of Buffalo, formerly of Ishpeming, encountered Ely recently in Roseland, Ill. C. The insurance companies with which Ely was also heavily insured have traced the missing man to the Kootenai district.

MRS. L. N. SCOTT DEAD.

Wife of the Well Known Theatrical Manager Passes Away.

St. Paul, Aug. 28.--(Special to The Herald).--Mrs. L. N. Scott, wife of the manager of theaters in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Duluth, and generally well known and liked by theatrical people throughout the entire country, died this morning at her home in this city. Mrs. Scott has been her husband's chief assistant in his business for nearly twenty years' past and was in the trust sense his "helpmeet."

DUNN AND KOERNER.

Visit Washington in Regard to the Mille Lacs Indian Lands.

Washington, Aug. 28.--(Special to The Herald).--C. C. Dunn, state auditor, and A. T. Koerner, state treasurer of Minnesota, spent today in Washington. They have been in the East five weeks, and yesterday in Richmond converted $500,000 of Virginia state bonds, which they had reserved at present, into registered bonds for the benefit of the school fund of Minnesota. The securities yield a revenue of 3 per cent, which will increase 50 per cent from 1901.

They had a lengthy conference with officials of the interior department today in regard to the Mille Lac Indians and the question of the state's rights to sections 16 and 32 on the White Earth, Red Lake and other Indian reservations for educational purposes. Acting Land Commissioner East Frankly stated that he thought the state was entitled to these sections in every township, and in cases where the land had already been disposed of the state could make indemnity selections.

MAILS TO KLONDIKE.

Canadian Government Has Made Arrangement for Service.

Ottawa, Aug. 28.--The postmaster general has telegraphed the Washington authorities that he has completed the arrangements for carrying the mails between Dyea and the Klondike. The mounted police will convey the mails from Dyea to Dawson City and after September the service will be monthly.

ALASKAN WATERS SURVEY.

San Francisco, Aug. 28.--Capt. August F. Rogers, who is in charge of the bureau of the United States coast and geodetic survey, has been ordered to proceed to Alaska without delay and make a thorough survey of the navigable waters at the head of Lynn canal, the approach to Dyea and Skagway bay.

ANOTHER ALASKAN RAILROAD.

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 28.--Duncan McKinnon, a leading merchant of Fort Wrangle, Alaska, is in the city and says that there is a strong likelihood that a railroad will be pushed through from Seattle to the head of the Klondike. The first mail steamer leaves Seattle on the 11th and takes on the British mail at Victoria, B. C. the same day. The mounted police will convey the mails from Dyea to Dawson City and after September the service will be monthly.

McKINLEY'S QUIET DAY.

Cleveland, Aug. 28.--President McKinley spent a quiet morning at Windemere, Senator Hanna's summer home. He said it was one of the quietest he has had since his vacation began. He did not leave the house at all and only a few of the neighbors called.

A NOTABLE CELEBRATION.

St. Paul, Aug. 28.--(Special to The Herald).--Major Davis and wife, father and mother of Senator C. K. Davis, are today celebrating the anniversary of their marriage. Although both are well advanced in years, they are in good health and their friends confidently expect them to celebrate a few more anniversaries.

LUEGERT'S HOODOO

Number Thirteen Causes the Big Sausage Maker Some Gloomy Forebodings.

FREQUENTLY SEEN

Unlucky Number Bobs Up in Many Instances--Progress of the Trial.

Chicago, Aug. 28.--State's Attorney Deenen today began preparations for the presentation of the evidence in the Luegert murder case to the jury next week. Plans and pictures of the big sausage factory at Armitage avenue and Diversy street were carefully arranged so as to be ready at the proper time, and the line to be pursued in presenting the case to the jury was discussed. It was decided to present the details of the alleged murder of Mrs. Luegert in the briefest possible manner consistent with a clear statement of the facts which the prosecution expects to prove. The defense will probably reserve its statement until the case of the prosecution is in.

Gossip has it that the number 13 has shown itself frequently in this trial, and although he will not admit it, Luegert is said to fear alleged unlucky influence. Luegert, it is said, was born on the thirteenth day of the month, and originally spelled his name Adolph Luegert, thirteen letters. The most important evidence, the finding of the gold rings, occurred three days after the alleged murder took place. The state's attorney, his assistants and the defense have been busy with the case, and the cabalistic number has been used to secretly in several other instances.

EAST INDIAN FIGHTING.

Some Sharp Engagements With the Native Tribesmen.

Simla, Aug. 28.--News has just been received here of another insurgent success. The Daulatials on Thursday last captured the police post at Mahomedabad, and telegraphed the thanks of the government of the border police. The garrison retreated to a new post held by a detachment of the British forces. The British post at Lalka was attacked yesterday. The Fifteenth Sikhs, with two guns, were sent to the assistance of the British forces, and although in great strength, were again driven off with heavy loss.

ST. LOUIS LABOR CONVENTION.

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 28.--The resident heads of various labor organizations have perfected arrangements for the big labor convention to be held here, beginning next Monday. Such men as James Carson, state president of the United Mine Workers of Illinois; E. V. Debs, president of the Social Democracy; President Ratcliff, international president of the International Mine Workers, and Mr. Lloyd, international president of the Carpenters and Joiners' union, are expected to participate in the proceedings.

NO STRIKE THOUGHT OF.

Kansas City, Aug. 28.--President A. E. Stillwell of the Kansas City, Pittsburg & Gulf railroad, said today: "There are absolutely no grounds for the rumor from Little Rock of an impending strike on our road. There have been no threats of a strike from any point, nor have our men any grievances."

Asks an Extension.

Ernest A. Schulte, assignee of the People's Savings bank, yesterday asked the district court for an extension of the time for filing claims from Aug. 21 to Jan. 1, 1898. In his petition he says that the assets of the bank consist principally of unsalable mortgages, and from this fact and the fact that he is engaged in foreclosing mortgages, he argues that the estate cannot be closed up inside of a year, and that no dividend can be declared inside of six months. The claims, he says, exceed 100 in number and they are mostly in small amounts and scattered.

Six File Answers.

Six of the stockholders of the Duluth Dry Goods company yesterday filed answers to the suit of Luther Mendenhall to enforce the statutory liability of the stockholders. Their defense is that the company compromised with its creditors in 1894 on a basis of 20 cents on the dollar. It is also alleged that the officers of the company allowed the indebtedness to reach over $200,000, which is in excess of the amount of indebtedness allowed by the articles of incorporation.

WATCHING DUNKER CLOSELY.

Chicago, Aug. 28.--Arthur Storer, who with his wife was shot last night by Henry C. Dunker, a barber, who had boarded with them for a number of years and who was jealous of Mrs. Storer, died today. Mrs. Storer is in a precarious condition and is not expected to live through the day. A close watch is being kept on Dunker to prevent him from carrying out his threat of making the affair a triple tragedy.

A PROFITABLE POUNDING.

San Francisco, Aug. 28.--The gross receipts of the Green-Walcott fight were exactly $8900. Of this sum Tom O'Rourke, Walcott's manager, took $2500, leaving $2200 for the club, which will net nearly $2000.

UNITED PRESS SCHEDULES.

Chicago, Aug. 28.--The schedule in the assignment of the United Press, filed today in the supreme court, shows liabilities of $129,415, with assets of $129,415, and the same amount, and actual assets estimated at $38,040. The bonds of the assignee was fixed at $50,000.

BLOODY CLOTHES FOUND.

Which May Be a Clue to Pike's Peak Murder.

Colorado Springs, Col., Aug. 28.--A young man discovered a bundle of blood stained underclothes and a flannel negligee shirt in a crevice in the rock just below the Cog road track, and about 500 feet above the Manitou & Pike's Peak railroad depot. The front of the shirt and the lower part of the underclothes were saturated with blood. The clothes are believed to belong to the men who murdered Kay, and answer in every detail to the description of the clothes which John B. Edmunds was known to have been wearing when he was last seen in this city a few days prior to the murder.

BAD ILLINOIS FIRE.

Virginia Has a $200,000 Blaze With Only $65,000 of Insurance.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 28.--The entire south side of the square at Virginia, Ill., was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is about $200,000, with $65,000 insurance. The fire departments of Springfield and Jacksonville went on special trains to assist.

The following buildings were destroyed: Farmer's National bank, Robinson & Taylor, proprietors; Joe Cornor, dry goods and notions; Phillips & Wilson, dry goods; J. Rex-roath, grocer; Duna May Brothers & Cordery, grocery firm; A. Woods, drugs; Crocker, bakery and restaurant; William Barkley, drugs; Taylor, H. King, furniture and undertaking; Black Brothers, groceries; Centennial National bank; Clark & Co., restaurant and bakery; and William Martin, tailor.

GRAND ARMY IN TORONTO.

St. Louis Post Makes a Very Pleasant Detour.

Toronto, Ont., Aug. 28.--The story of the halting of the Grand Army posts here appears to have been exaggerated. These are the facts. The members of post No. 13, of St. Louis, arrived here in the afternoon. They attempted to get a British flag on the steamer, and failing, tried to borrow one from the customs officer at the dock. He suggested that the visitors could get a flag at one of the stores further up the street, and a policeman escorted the post to Queen street, where it halted until its leaders could purchase a flag. Then, with the British and American flags flying, the Grand Army men marched to the parliament building, where they were warmly welcomed and returned to the boat very much pleased with their visit.

SENAZ DELMAZOS REMARKS.

Paris, Aug. 28.--Senor Delmazo, formerly civil governor of Havana, in an interview printed in Figaro this morning, is quoted as saying: "The Cuban question was badly managed by Senor Canovas. The Liberals would not refuse any just claims the United States might make. Gen. Campos, Dominguez, Blanco or Azcarraga are most fitted to succeed Gen. Weyler and bring the latter's unfortunate operations to an end."

WATCHING DUNKER CLOSELY.

Chicago, Aug. 28.--Arthur Storer, who with his wife was shot last night by Henry C. Dunker, a barber, who had boarded with them for a number of years and who was jealous of Mrs. Storer, died today. ## ADVANCED VALUES

The London Times Claims an Era of Better Prices Has Arrived.

WHEAT FIRM TODAY

Close Unchanged at Chicago and Half Cent Higher at Duluth.

London, Aug. 28.—The Times, in an editorial article on the wheat question, expresses the opinion that the era of better prices is coming, the long period of depression caused by the constant addition of the acreage of wheat, rendered possible by the extension of railways into new countries and the increase of tonnage of steamships, having come to an end for the present. The article says, and until the railways in Argentina and other wheat countries shall have been extended, there is no prospect of a decrease in the increase of production may be anticipated.

ON THE CHICAGO BOARD.

A Slight Rally at Liverpool Steadied Prices.

Chicago, Aug. 28.—All the grain and provision markets were quiet, almost to dullness, today at the opening, in marked contrast to the excitement and heavy trading which have characterized them during the past two weeks. There was a slightly steadier feeling in wheat on a little rally at Liverpool, December opening at 90 1/2c, and against yesterday's closing price of 90c, and advancing to 90 3/4c. A few minutes later the market was off owing to selling of September wheat by Grier, who is supposed to be engineering the deal, and that option. September showed some nervousness, opening 1/2c higher at 90 1/2c, advancing to 90 3/4c, then declining to 90 1/2c. There was a subsequent rally to 90 3/4c. December declined to 89 1/2c, and reacted to 90c. The wheat exports for the last two weeks have been enormous, 10,677,000 bushels. Northwest receipts were 265 cars, compared with 242 last week and 57 a year ago.

The wheat export from both coasts, as reported by Bradstreet's, amounted to 5,419,625 bushels, against 5,253,554 bushels the corresponding week of 1906. That showed a sufficiently healthy export movement to have been a probable element of the firmness at the opening. Argentina did not ship any wheat to Europe this week, and the export from Chicago for the day were 190 cars, only 23 of them of contract quality. The exports of wheat from the Atlantic ports for twenty-four hours were equal to about 600,000 bushels. December is called some more, starting at 90 1/2c, and the world's shipment of wheat and flour to Europe for the week at 7,500,000 bushels. The visible Monday is not expected to show much change.

Closing cablegrams showed a decline in Paris equal to 2 1/2c per bushel, and August and 2 1/2c per bushel for November. There was a decline of 1 1/2c per bushel at Antwerp. Heavy buying in Belgium-Guerry and other houses, which the crowd in the market, and being for the account of Armour & Co. or the G. B. French interests caused an advance from around 80c to 80 1/2c, about half an hour from the end of the session. It finally rose to 90c, at which price it closed. Sales were reported at 15,000 bushels of No. 2 spring wheat at 55 1/2c over the price of September.

Trade in corn showed a great falling off. The opening was steady on continued drought here, but heavy buying and an expected big visible increase caused a rally. The market was quiet, but heavy buying in September. December opened 1/4c higher at 32 1/2c, declined to 32c, and recovered to 31 1/2c. Local receipts were 171 cars.

Oats were without independent features and little interest was shown. The market followed corn. Local receipts were 470 cars. December opened 1/4c higher at 20 1/2c, declined to 20c, and recovered to 20 1/2c. Local receipts were 171 cars.

THE DULUTH BOARD.

The Market Was Quieter Than of Late.

The wheat market was quieter today and while the fluctuations covered a wide range during the session, there was not as violent as of late and the close was but little changed from yesterday's last quotations. September wheat opened unchanged on the Duluth board at 82 1/2c, but soon advanced to 83 1/2c. Then it fell off to 83c, rallied to 83 1/2c, but broke and sold down steadily to 82c. A reaction followed, and there was a decided decline to 81 1/2c occurred before noon. The close was at 82c, a decline of 1/2c for the day. The premium on wheat bushels of cash stuff at 1 1/2c over September and the elevators took 35,000 bushels at 1 1/2c premium. Flax was dull and closed as low as $1.05. Following were the Duluth market quotations: Wheat—No. 1 hard, cash, $1.02; No. 1 northern, cash, $1.02; September, $1.02; October, $1.02; December, $1.02; No. 2 hard, cash, $1.01; No. 2 northern, cash, $1.01; September, $1.01; October, $1.01; December, $1.01; No. 3 hard, cash, $1.00; No. 3 northern, cash, $1.00; September, $1.00; October, $1.00; December, $1.00; No. 4 hard, cash, $0.99; No. 4 northern, cash, $0.99; September, $0.99; October, $0.99; December, $0.99; No. 5 hard, cash, $0.98; No. 5 northern, cash, $0.98; September, $0.98; October, $0.98; December, $0.98; No. 6 hard, cash, $0.97; No. 6 northern, cash, $0.97; September, $0.97; October, $0.97; December, $0.97; No. 7 hard, cash, $0.96; No. 7 northern, cash, $0.96; September, $0.96; October, $0.96; December, $0.96; No. 8 hard, cash, $0.95; No. 8 northern, cash, $0.95; September, $0.95; October, $0.95; December, $0.95; No. 9 hard, cash, $0.94; No. 9 northern, cash, $0.94; September, $0.94; October, $0.94; December, $0.94; No. 10 hard, cash, $0.93; No. 10 northern, cash, $0.93; ## NORTH OF IRELAND

The National Convention of the Scotch-Irish Society of America.

TO MEET AT DETROIT

President McKinley Has Been Invited to Attend the Annual Gathering.

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 28.—The national convention of the Scotch-Irish society of America, which will be held here early in September, will attract a large number of visitors to this city. The convention was to have been held in June, but was postponed until September. President McKinley has been invited to attend. The president of the society is the well known Robert Bonner, of New York city; the vice president, Gen. John I. Macintosh, of Philadelphia; the treasurer, John McHenry, of Philadelphia; the secretary, C. Floyd, of Chattanooga. The vice president for New York state is Rev. Dr. John Hall, of New York city, and for Pennsylvania is Col. A. K. McClure, of Philadelphia. Among the distinguished New Jersey delegates will be Professor George R. Macintosh. The congress of last year was held at Harrisburg, Pa., and was the eighth in the history of the society.

The Scotch-Irish, as they are known in America from their Scotch descent and their residence in the North of Ireland, represent the colonial movement of the eighteenth century, as the English did that of the seventeenth century. Early Scotch-Irish immigration to New England was attempted in 1630, but a general migration was not successful until about 1700 and 1720, and then it took its southern direction. Though many eventually settled in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, the main stream poured into the middle and southern states, through the ports of Philadelphia, New Castle and Charleston. Patrick Henry was of this descent. A large proportion of the signers of the declaration of independence and five of the governors of the newly-created states were Scotch-Irishmen. To the army and navy they have given Andrew Jackson, Zachary Taylor, Sam Houston, George Rogers Clark, Andrew Jackson, Stonewall Jackson, Commodore Perry and Matthew C. Perry, the steamship, Clay and Calhoun; to invention, Morse, Fulton, McCormick and Edison; to journalism, Horace Greeley and A. K. McClure; to the church, ment of the eighteenth century, as the English did that of the seventeenth century. Though many eventually settled in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont, the main stream poured into the middle and southern states, through the ports of Philadelphia, New Castle and Charleston. To the army and navy they have given Andrew Jackson, Zachary Taylor, Sam Houston, George Rogers Clark, Andrew Jackson, Stonewall Jackson, Commodore Perry and Matthew C. Perry, the steamship, Clay and Calhoun; to invention, Morse, Fulton, McCormick and Edison; to journalism, Horace Greeley and A. K. McClure; to the church,

Samuel Davies, the Alexanders, John Hall and Bishop Thompson; to education, McCosh, Macintosh, MacKeon and Macintosh. They have given the country six presidents: Jackson, Polk, Taylor, Buchanan, Johnson, Arthur and McKinley. The annual congresses of the society, which have met primarily as historical societies in various Scotch-Irish sections North and South, and which will continue their work in the West, New England and Canada, are making the first serious attempt to recover the history of their people from the mass of American history, where it lies unburied with that of the English colonists, and to place it on a separate footing like that of the Puritans, the Huguenots and the Germans. The Scotch-Irish elements are distinctly Presbyterian in their origin, though they have in these latter days differentiated into other sects. They, however, remain steadfast to Protestant traditions.

THE TRADE OUTLOOK.

Dun Says the Condition of Trade Is One of Gratifying Steadiness.

New York, Aug. 28.—R. G. Dun & Co. in their weekly review of trade says: Speculative markets have their turns of reaction, but business has none this season, gaining with a steadiness that is most gratifying. The starting of works, increase in hands employed, advance in wages and in prices of products and the heavy movement of crops are facts before which all speculative influences have to bow. The week's despatches mention sixteen iron works that have started, against one closing; fifteen woolen works started, and so on in many other directions, while many more works have increased their forces and many are preparing to resume some of the work they have suspended. While these things continue—with grain rising and going abroad in enormous quantities—money markets have reason for abounding confidence, and speculative markets for strength. Crop prospects are abundant, and the market at such a time, but it is noteworthy that none of them indicate anything less than an ample supply of the great staple.

Wheat rose over 6 cents Saturday, with exaggerated reports of injury to almost 8 cents, advanced 4 cents, and then declined sharply, closing 1 cent lower for the week. That some harm was done to spring wheat in the three states appears, but no accounts are checked by higher prices, were 3.68-3.69 for the total yield below 50,000,000 bushels, which would be 52,000,000 bushels larger than the other crop except that of 1891. In spite of great lack of cars, wheat receipts were 4,349,594 bushels for the week, and for four weeks 15,550,681 bushels, against 14,947 bushels last year, and Atlantic exports, though somewhat checked by higher prices, were 3,688,209 for the week, against 2,507,516 last year, and for four weeks 12,507,657 bushels, against 7,306,177 bushels last year.

Receipts of corn bear strong testimony to the seriousness of foreign needs, having been 6,800,144 bushels for the week against 2,813,419 bushels last year, and Atlantic exports in four weeks have been 10,495,478 bushels, against 5,617,110 bushels last year. The price rose 1 1/2 cents for the week. The sympathy with other markets rather than reports of injury that capable authorities deem not important accounts for the advance 3-1/2 in cotton. But the mills are resuming work with a rush, and will require heavy supplies of material to meet the large demand for goods which has advanced the prices of many. A general replenishing of stocks will call for heavy additional supplies. The wool market also reflects in greater strength and further advance. The price of wool has been buying of wools, which has set many mills at work night and day, and caused makers of many grades to draw them entirely from the order market. But while the mills have been buying somewhat more, more wool has been mainly speculative between dealers.

At last demand has so far overtaken the capacity of iron works that prices are growing stronger. Bessemer and gray forge 25 cents higher at Pittsburg and 16 1/2 in Eastern markets as much stronger because rebates and concessions are stopped. Builders are 3 1/2 per cent higher, structural angles, bars and plates about as much, rods 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 cents higher, and keel higher. The demand is also heavy for merchant pipe and steel, and sheets are very strong. The advance in iron and steel prices averages 2 1/2 per cent for the week. Buying of ore continues heavy—10,000 tons this week at Cleveland, and among the iron works starting are four more furnaces.

While tin is weaker at $13.75 with large arrivals copper is held at 11 1/4 for lake by large order and demand, and lead is generally obtaining below 4 cents, sales having been heavy. Connelville coke output to 125,000 tons for the week. Hides are again stronger at Chicago, though lower in New York. The largest country hides are called scarce, although cattle receipts at the four chief markets—Chicago, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha—were 12,000 head for the corresponding week since 1892. Failures for the week have been 23 in the United States against 28 last year and 34 in Canada against 33 last year.

WHAT BRADSTREET SAYS. New York, Aug. 28.—Bradstreet's London says: The general trade situation continues to improve, and aside from the prices of cotton and wool, the outlook is little in sight to cloud the future. The feature of the week is the advance in prices of iron and steel, beginning with an upward movement all along the line in iron. Builders' steel billets are now $1.50 above lowest figures, bars $1.50, rods $1 and plates $1. Bessemer pig iron is up 25 cents and foundry a like amount. Southern iron is very strong and continues active exportation. While wire mills have not advanced prices they have withdrawn quotations. Southern steel is being sold up to Jan. 1, with the demand for earlier deliveries from furnaces than has been arranged for, are quite significant.

Lead, too, and soft coal are higher, as is wheat, notwithstanding two reactions. Bradstreet's points out that the statistical position of wheat is the strongest known since the United States became a considerable exporter, and that its price, as well as that of bread, is likely to materially exceed the present week's advances. Following that for which prices are highest are flour, corn, oats, rye, barley, potatoes, turnips, eggs, beans, clover, leaf tobacco, wool and livestock. Advances for leather, hides, lumber and linseed oil are also reported.

Cotton, which is up 3-1/2 cent, reports the smallest world's stock for several years past at this period, an improved one and higher prices for the manufactured product. In spite of this, the tendency of estimates is toward the largest total yield on record, but with probabilities favoring much better prices than those obtained for the crop of 1891-2, the out-turn of which was 3,675,000 bales.

Advances are being also asked for re-orders of various goods at mills, but the strongest known since the United States became a considerable exporter, and that its price, as well as that of bread, is likely to materially exceed the present week's advances. Following that for which prices are highest are flour, corn, oats, rye, barley, potatoes, turnips, eggs, beans, clover, leaf tobacco, wool and livestock. Advances for leather, hides, lumber and linseed oil are also reported.

There are 219 business failures reported in the United States for this week, against 221 last week, 239 in 1900, 1901, 1902, 1903, 1904, 1905, 1906, 1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913, 1914, ## ELY EVENTS.

Ely, Minn., Aug. 28.—(Special to The Herald).—There has been no time since the spring of 1883 that so much work, building and general improvements, have been carried on in this city as now.

Although only one shift is working at the Chandler mine, the speedy resumption of the night shift is assured. There are employed in the mines around the city some 750 men, who command a monthly pay rate of $40.00.

The Chandler has shipped up to date about 150,000 tons and still has in stock some 100,000 tons. The steam shovel at both Chandler and Pioneer are doing a great deal, but none is doing as much as the Zenith is.

Which May Pick Out the

There will be in attendance representatives of the South Law element of the Republican party in Brooklyn, at their head being Jackson Wallace, lately president of the Brooklyn board of aldermen, who is closely connected with Mr. Low.

MOONSHINERS COMMIT MURDER.

Kill Two Deputies and Wound Two Others in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 30.—Two deputy marshals are dead, two are seriously wounded and two are missing as a result of an attack on a posse of officers by a band of moonshiners in Pope county yesterday. The dead are: B. E. Taylor, of Stacey county; Joe Dodson, of Stone county. The wounded are the Reifweiser brothers. The names of the missing men are not given, but they are supposed to be deputy sheriffs of Stacey county. Taylor, one of the murdered men, was 60 years of age, and was the wealthiest man in Stacey county. Dodson was a well known deputy, and has been a terror to moonshiners for years.

The six officers were on a moonshine raid when the terrible affair occurred. They had approached to within 30 yards of an illicit distillery when they were fired upon from ambush. Taylor and Dodson fell at the first volley, dead in thirty-five miles from Russellville at a point ten miles south of War Springs. The locality is in the mountains, and has for many years been a favorite rendezvous for moonshiners and counterfeiters.

The news of the terrible tragedy was brought to Russell this morning by Dr. Pack, who came for the coroner. The men who did the shooting are supposed to be a gang of moonshiners, led by Horace France and John Church, two of the most desperate characters in that part of the state.

BOILING CADAVERS

Ghostly Experiments Which the Defense Will Make In the Luetgert Trial.

WILL BOIL A BODY

And Judge Tuthill's Court and Jury to See the Weird Process.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—The trial of Adolph L. Luetgert, the murder of his wife began in earnest today, the preliminary work of securing a jury having been completed. Long before the case was called, the corridors of the court building were thronged with people anxious to gain admittance to the little courtroom, and five minutes after the doors were opened the room was packed to suffocation.

Contrary to the expectation of the state the jury will be asked by the defense to witness an experiment in the vat in the basement of the sausage factory. This is to be the result of an attorney's statement that the body of a man, who met his death by violence Thursday night, was taken to the factory at 61 Diversey avenue and immersed in a solution of caustic potash. The result exceeded their expectations. The experiment experts reported that after boiling for 15 per cent solution of the potash for a length of time, three and one-half hours and under the same circumstances as the state alleges Luetgert disintegrated the body of his wife, the complete skeleton of the cadaver remained intact, and that the solution had but little effect on the clothing.

As a result of the defense will, it is said, ask Judge Tuthill to recall the jury to the courtroom for a few hours and witness another experiment, which the defense claims will completely disprove the state's theory of disintegration. Luetgert was called and confident, looking when brought into court, and he had apparently been greatly reassured by Sunday's report from the daily court-room ordeal. Assistant Attorney General McEwen formally opened the case for the state. On the witness stand, close to the jury box, were hung large photographs of the Luetgert family, and the Luetgert home, where it is charged the crime was committed and then destroyed her body.

The attorney for the state began with the disappearance of the body of Mrs. Luetgert, and next described the visit, on May 1, of Dietrich Binkewitz, a brother of Luetgert, who he called to see his sister and discovered that she had disappeared. He dwelt on the apparent indifference of the husband to the disappearance of his wife, and his invitation to Binkewitz to come again in about a week, when he would tell him if she had returned. Binkewitz, who is now in the state prison, testified that he had not seen his sister since that time. The state then called Mrs. Luetgert, who testified that she had not seen her husband since the disappearance of her body. The state then called Mrs. Luetgert, who testified that she had not seen her husband since the disappearance of her body.

Washington, Aug. 30.—The navy department has received a telegraphic request from the owners of the Alaskan steamer Portland, which has just arrived at Seattle, asking permission to dock the vessel in the government dry dock of Puget sound. two private detectives $5 each, and they would do more than the police could accomplish. The witness said Luetgert told him he had not looked to see if his wife had taken any clothes except the dress she had on when he last saw her.

He had not visited any place or made any inquiries, Luetgert told his story in a simple, straightforward way that made him an impressive witness.

The Dingley Tariff Bill

Has nothing to do with the advance in wheat, but it is the cause of an advance of from 15 to 20 per cent on imported dry goods, and a corresponding advance on domestic dry goods. Anticipating this, we placed our fall orders months ago, consequently own every dollar's worth of fall merchandise to open the season with at old prices. Some merchants would mark their goods on the basis of present prices. We don't; we are satisfied with a living margin of profit. We give our customers the benefit of our early purchases, although we could now sell many lines at wholesale for more than we ask for them at retail. When present stocks are exhausted we shall be compelled to advance prices, and we tell you the advance will surprise you. Prudent buyers will make their purchases now; improvident buyers will procrastinate.

WHEAT DECLINED

The September Option Declined Nearly Two Cents In This Market.

THE CABLES LOWER

Decline at Liverpool More Powerful Than Dakota Frost Reports.

Wheat was active but lower on the Duluth board today, the net decline for the day was nearly 2c. The main cause of the weakness was the falling off in prices at Liverpool. Despite the fact that there was a flood of foreign estimates of the shortage in the European wheat crop and that frost was reported at some points in North Dakota, the weak feeling continued throughout the session and the last sales were made at the lowest figures of the day. September wheat opened at 90c, declined to 89c, and then recovered to 90c, but the price again fell back to 89c, and then to 88c, and finally to 87c, where it closed. The decline was more powerful than the effect of the Dakota frost reports, which were not taken into account by the market.

ON THE CHICAGO BOARD.

Weakness at Liverpool Caused Prices to Decline.

Chicago, Aug. 30.—There was an easy feeling at the opening in wheat today, caused by the weakness at Liverpool, but the market soon became active and showed a slight advance. The price of September wheat was 90c, and the price of December wheat was 88c. The market was active and showed a slight advance.

SECTION 22 SCANDAL.

The New York World, in an editorial
discussing section 22 of the tariff law,
says: "Senator Chandler sets a good example. He explains how the discriminating clause against goods imported over the Canadian railroads got into the tariff bill. 'It was inserted,'
he says, 'in conference committee.'"
He and others who ought to have read
the conference committee's report in detail spared themselves that trouble.
They accepted Senator Allison's false statement that no new matter had been put into the bill. "I have no excuse to offer," says Senator Chandler. "I hope to be forgiven by my constituents, but I shall never forgive myself." But who put the clause into the bill? What was he paid for putting it there? Who paid him, and why? In his contrite mood, Senator Chandler ought to take the lead in forcing an investigation to find out these facts. The clause is mischievous, of course, but it is a matter
of no consequence in comparison with the possibilities of legislative purchase or manipulation which it reveals. We can stand all the mischief it involves,
but we cannot endure to have our law-
making processes thus reduced to a system of bargain and bribery. If Mr.
Chandler will lead a movement to find out the facts in this case and to reject the power of conference committees, his forgiveness by his constituents will be much surer than it now
is. The country wants this sort of thing
stopped at once and forever.

The World is right. The section 22
scandal should be thoroughly probed.
No time should be lost in discovering
who put this section in the bill when it was before the conference committee,
and if Senator Chandler is as sorry as he professes because he failed to read
the conference report carefully and thus note the important change, he will accept the World's suggestion and lead
a movement to find out the facts in the case. Inasmuch as it is now almost generally agreed, except by some of the railroads and their subsidized organs,
like the New York Sun, that the section
is a serious blow at the business interests of the Northwest and New England, no time should be lost, when congress reconvenes, in securing its repeal. At the same time it will be perficient to inaugurate a congressional inquiry into the manner in which the clause was surreptitiously inserted in the Dingley bill.

MISLEADING ESTIMATES.
It is natural that the estimates of the gains to American producers from the advance in price of wheat and other farm products have been exaggerated.
For instance the assistant secretary of agriculture is reported in a Washington dispatch as having expressed the opinion that American farmers this year would receive in the aggregate from $400,000,000 to $500,000,000 in excess of the amount received last year for their wheat. The Omaha Bee points out that this is obviously an exaggeration,

for assuming the yield of wheat to be 550,000,000 bushels it would have to bring to the farmers about $1.50 per bushel in order to realize the estimate of the secretary, and no one has ven-ured to predict that the price would go to any such figure.

With the advance already attained
the gain to the farmers over last year
has been about $100,000,000, and there is reason to believe this excess will be increased, but there is no probability that American farmers will realize enough
for their wheat to carry the excess over last year anywhere near the figures attributed to Assistant Secretary Brigh-ham. It is more than likely that the secretary should have been reported as estimating this gain of from $400,000,000
to $500,000,000 from the general advance
on agricultural products, in which
it would be a conservative estimate. The American farmer is doing very well. He has a market for his products and is getting a good profit
on all that he has produced. He is paying his debts and is providing himself
with necessities that he has had to do without for several years. He is in an enviable position in comparison with the farmers of any other country. There is no necessity, as the Bee says, for exaggerating his gains, though all may rejoice in them. And what is equally important, his prosperity means the prosperity of the whole country.

NO GEORGIA MARBLE.

The state capital commission revenued at St. Paul today and will probably be in session several days. The principal business is to decide what
stone shall be used in the construction of the new capitol building. It is understood that the members of the commission are divided upon this subject, and there has been a report circulated that a majority favors Georgia marble. The sentiment of the state is undoubtedly
in favor of Minnesota stone being used,
and it is surprising that the commission should consider for one moment
the idea of selecting any stone from outside this state. It is understood that those who favor the use of Georgia marble insist that there is no stone in the state unless it be that found near Winona, that would be suitable to the style of architecture agreed upon for the building and at the same time come within the limits of the appropriation made by the legislature. It is said that quarry at Winona does not contain
enough stone to erect the capitol.

On the other hand, those who favor
Minnesota stone believe that, no matter
what style of architecture has been adopted, there is plenty of stone to be obtained in the state which will look
as well as any which can be obtained from Georgia or any other state. Minnesota granite makes a handsome appearance, and the Keokuk river sandstone would also look well, while there is no doubt that the use of the Winona
stone would result in a beautiful appearing structure. That there is plenty of the Winona stone is shown by the fact that one of the strongest competi-
ing firms in the West has offered to put up a large bond guaranteeing to supply
this stone in ample quantities and of sufficient size. The Hinsdale granite felled in this county can hardly be exceeded, but the owners of the quarry
are not disposed to reopen it and make a contract to furnish the stone, so that the choice of Minnesota stone is narrowed down to the stone found at St.
Cloud, Kettle River and Winona.

Organized labor has decided to use
every effort to induce the capitol commission to respect the wishes of the great majority of the people of the state that home material be used. At the meeting of the commission, which opened today, a committee will wait
outside and place the demands of labor
and the people in no uncertain way before the body. The committee will be composed of the president of the Minneapolis Trades and Labor council, the St. Paul Trades and Labor assembly,
the Minneapolis Building Trades council, the central labor body of St. Cloud, and other prominent labor leaders of the state, including Organizer John Swift. The officers of the State Federation of Labor will also act as a committee, and a more representative body of labor men could not be found
than that which will demand of the commission that home material be made
use of in the construction of the capitol building.

The Minneapolis Journal quotes a labor leader as follows: "It is an outrage that the commission should think
of going out of the state for material
when the best that can be found in the country can be had inside of our own state. We do not desire to specify that any particular stone shall be used in the construction of the building
other than the stone used shall be quar-
ried in the state by Minnesota labor.
This we do demand, though, and I am sure that every Minnesotan will back us in our contention. It means much to Minnesota labor and we cannot afford to allow this opportunity to pass."
The justice of labor's demand in this respect cannot be denied. It is a good time to emphasize the doctrine of nationalizing home industries.

A HOLY WAR PROBABLE.

If the report should prove true that the ameer of Afghanistan has ordered
"the faithful" to hold themselves in readiness for a holy war, and that a meeting of the mullahs has been convened at Kabul to discuss the situation,
the worst fears which have been felt
regarding the present uprising will be realized. A holy war would mean the extermination of all Europeans in India who failed to get out of the clutches
of the Mohammedan natives. Heretofore England has played the Hindu against the Mohammedans, as they are bitter foes, and has thus been able to put down insurrections and keep the country under subjection, but in view of the great discontent caused by the famine she may be unable to rally the Hindoo to her aid this time.

The population of India is estimated at about 300,000,000 souls, of whom

about 70,000,000 are in feudatory or native states. In the census tables the total population of India is divided into 115 groups on the basis of language.
About 200,000,000 speak the Aryo-Indic
tongue, and 55,000,000 speak the Dravidian.
The English language has a population of only 50,000. Three-fourths of the natives profess Hinduism, and, together with the Mohammedans, who number about 60,000,000,
they comprise over 92 per cent of the whole community. In the Punjab, the scene of the present break, there were in 1901, 10,237,200 Hindus, 1,550,181
Sikhs, 45,682 Jains, 62,956 Buddhists, 412
Parsees, 12,315,643 Mohammedans, 53,909
Christians, 33 Jews and 29 "others,"
making a total population of 55,130,157.
It will be observed that a majority of the people of the Punjab are of the same religion as the sultan of Turkey,
and regard him as the head of their church. There is a suspicion in some quarters that the sultan has been inspiring with a view of engaging England's attention so that she will not force the Turks to get out of Thessaly.
If the sultan could get up a holy war in India, England would find it impossible to take any further part in the settlement of the Turkish-Greek dispute, and he doubt figures that he might be able to induce the other powers to let his troops remain in control of Thessa-
ly. It is worth noting that he is not evacuating Thessaly with much celerity.

Referring to Dr. Andrews, the Minneapolis Journal says: "His retirement from the Brown university was not a suppression of free speech, but was brought about by Mr. Andrews' unwillingness to conform to the wishes of the corporation in financial matters. He had taught that the earth is con-
cave and the sun and planets revolve
within the convexity, he would not have been permitted to remain. Teaching a theory of finance as irrational as
some have, young and old, stand
the earth, the corporation would have been absolutely derelict in their duty had
Mr. Andrews been suffered to remain.
Even if the Journal's argument is correct, its premises are false, because Dr.
Andrews did not teach any theory of finance in Brown university. His own views were not presented to the students."

There is a novel crusade in Chicago.
Its object is the removal of lookingglass from passenger elevators in office buildings. Any one riding on an elevator having a looking-glass will observe how women, young and old, stand
before it, not alone to see if their hats
are on straight, but to put a few finishing touches on curls or ribbons. Even when one reaches the floor she desires,
dresses are frequently necessary to enable her to finish her toilet. If one fails
to see the looking-glass, she will stand

HOW DID SHE DIE?

Luetgert's Attorneys Want the Prosecution to Set Forth Manner of Death.

MANY ALLEGATIONS

Indictment Sets Forth a Number of Causes--Progress of the Trial.

Chicago, Aug. 21.—When the Luetsgert murder trial was resumed this morning, the defense asked the court to compel the state to produce the evidence, means, according to the theory of the prosecution the life of Mrs. Luetsgert was taken before her body was placed in the vat. Judge Vincent obtained the evidence at the beginning of the trial meetings and said that the indictment which contains the counts, does not state the manner of Mrs. Luetsgert's death. The state's attorney, J. J. Connelley said, allege that she was drowned in a vat containing water and caustic soda or perch.

The seventh count charges that she was struck and knocked down by some person or persons, and that she was killed; but the eighth count alleges that she was killed by a violent assault while the tenth charges that she was stabbed with a knife. The eleventh count charges that she was strangled, taken, and the twelfth and last alleges that life was taken by some means unknown.

"The state has outlived the manner in which it is believed the remains of the victims should be handled," the judge said. "The state has no right to be entitled to the knowledge the state has as to the means of her death."

Judge Tuttle promptly decided that the state should specify the means of death. There was a greater pressure than ever this morning for the state to specify the means of death. A crowd stood on the outside unable to get in. One noticeable feature was the large number of women who succeeded in getting in. They were seated before the proceedings began. Women of all ages were among the spectators.

At the first recess, a man, John McLeod, a photographer, who identified a dozen views of the Lucretia factory. These are pictures of the building and the interior of the building. Photographs of the basement and the fatal

Mr. Aspha Tosch, wife of Michael Tosch, saloonkeeper at 629 Diversey avenue, was called next. She was a friend of Mrs. Luertger and visited the latter at her home. Mrs. Tosch said that on Sunday afternoon, May 2, Luertger came to her husband's saloon and bought a glass of beer. He then asked her to go home with him what was the matter with him, a question which he did not answer. May 3, Mrs. Tosch said she was called and asked him about the disappearance of his wife. He said he did not know where his wife was, and was innocent. Mrs. Tosch said she did not believe he was guilty and Luertger replied that he felt like taking a revolver and killing him. Mrs. Tosch said she did not know what she should do for the children. Mrs. Tosch said Luertger asked her what she had heard from the detectives who had been called and what she had seen or heard herself.

Mrs. Tosch, in her testimony, showed a decidedly hostile spirit towards Luetgert and in a number of details she indicated that the story told to Justice Keisten and in Judge Gibbons' court in the habeas corpus proceedings. She said Mrs. Luetgert once had an attack of throat trouble and Luetgert told her to leave in a hurry, that she had to be delayed a minute longer in calling a doctor, the "rotten beast," meaning his wife, would have been dead. In her previous statement Mrs. Tosch did not use these words. She said that on her confession she had seen smoke coming from behind him what caused the smoke from the factory furnace on the morning of May 3, and he asked her not to say anything about the smoke.

THE YEAR'S BUSINESS

Crop Year Shows a Large Decrease Over Last Year in Wheat Receipts.

FIGURES COMPLETE

Tremendous Increase in Receipts of Coarse Grains, During Past Few Years.

Today closes the annual crop year and while the exact figures cannot be obtained until tonight or tomorrow morning, yet close estimates of today's receipts and shipments can be made, and The Herald therefore presents the receipts and shipments of grain for the past twelve months from the head of the lakes.

The receipts of wheat this year fell about 2,000,000 bushels below those of last year, due to the lighter crop. This market secured an even larger proportionate share than it did the year before. But the year 1896-97 was the banner crop year and the receipts of wheat here touched the highest point in the history of the market. In 1891-92 there was another large crop and the wheat receipts ran over 5,000,000 bushels, but aside from these two crop years this year's receipts have not been equalled in a number of years if ever. The total wheat receipts this year were 42,267,415 bushels, as compared with 47,106,000 last year. The shipments this year were 39,747,000 bushels.

But it is in coarse grains that the Duluth market is remarkable. Three or four years ago it was scarcely worthy of notice as a market for coarse grains. Today it is among the first. It indeed it does not lend all others in the country. In the year 1895-96 the total amount of coarse grains received at the head of the lakes was 1,524,000. The following year, 1896-97, this amount increased to 4,056,565, and the Duluth grain dealers began to feel jubilant over the prospect that Duluth was coming to be from a coarse grain market. This stride also attracted the notice of other markets and the effect was soon manifest. But that jump was nothing compared to the one in the year following, when the total receipts were 15,236,200 bushels, nearly four times that of the year before. The year just closing shows another magnificent increase for the total receipts were 21,519,420 bushels, an increase of nearly 6,000,000 bushels. There were more than 2,000,000 each of oats, barley and flax, and only showed a slight decrease in corn and the prospects are that next year this grain will show a great increase. Within the last few months the companies have branched out into the corn trade and receipts have jumped at a prodigious rate. The year together in spite of the decrease in wheat receipts the Duluth grain men have reason to feel well satisfied with the work of the past crop year.

The following tables show the receipts and shipments of grain for the year by months and also the totals for several previous crop years:

In every village, in every hamlet and at almost every crossroad in the rural districts of England, and within the radius of a mile from any given place in any city or large town throughout the United Kingdom can be found an interesting combination of a postoffice, a telegraph office, a telephone office, a press office, banking office and savings bank, all under the direction of one or more very polite young women with ruddy cheeks, broad feet and broad smiles. These young women, who represent that excellent person known as Her Gracious Majesty the Queen, and in her name will take charge of all the business that is sent to the hands of the individual to whom they are addressed, by carrier, anywhere in the United Kingdom, for the charge of postage, telegraph, telephone, press, or savings bank, is paid by the sender. The system of free delivery is universal.

In the country as well as in the towns. Or, by condensing your communication to the length of twenty words, including the address, and sending it by mail, have it forwarded by the same relay, have it carried by woman to any point in the country, and the distance may be 12½ cents in your case. When we were last the charge was a shilling, but the government has recently reduced it to 10 pence. The cost of a letter by rail is only about 150,000 last year in maintaining a service which deserves a special letter.

You are able to hear the voices of the loved ones at home—the women will furnish you a telephone for a three-minute conversation for three pence. And that is, if you want to talk with a person fifty miles away you can have the wire for sixpence for three minutes. At the moment you are sending for five minutes you will be shilling for the call.

It only expresses a sentiment that with the exception of persons who neglect their families on account of drinking or who have been repeatedly brought before the magistrates as drunkards, the privilege of procuring alcoholic beverages. A drunkards' list, published periodically, exhibits their names and addresses, and the names of the local ice-dealers and liquor dealers, who are liable to heavy fines if they sell liquor to those mentioned in the list. The law also prohibits the sale of restaurants and hotels and reads something like this: "To whom it may com-

RATHBUN'S RIDE TO SUPERIOR

21 East Superior Street.

Transfer System Now in Vogue Makes It Desirable For Everyone.

Those who have not taken a ride on the Duluth-Superior bridge, can not appreciate the possibilities for enjoyment which a trip to Superior now affords. Transfer checks are given by the Superior Rapid Transfer Railway company, so that one may go to any point on its twenty-six miles of line for a nickel, and another nickel will make connections with it on the Wisconsin side of the bridge from any point on the line. Under this new arrangement a person can go from Lester Park, West Duluth, Woodland or any other point on the Duluth-Superior line, to the Wisconsin side of the bridge, for a dime, which is just a trifle more than a half cent a mile, and that should be cheap enough to satisfy the most economical.

It would be difficult to find anywhere in the country a ride where such a variety of sights can be viewed in so short a journey. After leaving Superior street and passing over Garfield avenue and through the lumber yards of the Gray & Stevens' mill, the view of the harbor, St. Louis bay, the city of Duluth, Minnesota Point, Lake Superior and the docks, mills and elevators of the Wisconsin side, is a sight to draw of this splendid structure there is visible more wealth, industry, commerce and natural scenery than comes within the range of human vision from any one point in the entire country.

At the Wisconsin end of the bridge the cars of the Superior line make close connection with those from this side of the bay. They run out to Connor's Point, and over the bridge that spans Howard's pocket, past the shipyards of the American Steel Barge company to Tower avenue and thence through the business heart of the city to Belknap street, where transfers to all parts of the city and its suburbs are given. If one wishes to go to East Superior, or Old Superior, he takes a car out of Belknap street, riding by the four best residence part of town, thence to West Fifth street, riding by the four great coal and ore docks, all the time having a splendid view of the Superior end of the harbor and Minnesota Point, through Old Superior to the banks of the Nemadji opposite the Superior entry. If a day's outing is desired no better place for it can be desired than is found near this stream. The grounds are almost as nature left them, with great trees and dry ground cleared of underbrush, with sheltered nooks near the water's edge. From the bridge to this attractive spot is seven miles.

If the thriving manufacturing suburb of South Superior is the objective point, a South Superior transfer should be asked for at the transfer station. The car runs straight out Tower avenue to Sixth-fourth street, passes the driving park, and through a series of small suburban homes, truck gardens and rustic lodges that fill the space that intervenes between the city proper and South Superior, where a population of between 3000 and 4000 busy people are employed at the Webster chair factory, the LaFelle Wagon works and a number of minor factories.

Another and one of the most pleasant rides is over the steel plant line. This goes out Tower avenue to Twenty-first

Man Arrested For Molesting Two Little Girls.

A man giving his name as Andrew Lindgreen was found at Forty-fourth avenue east and Cambridge street yesterday afternoon molesting two little girls who live in that vicinity. When the officer, who had been attracted by the girls' screams, appeared, Lindgreen was holding them by the arm and muttering some unintelligible words in a low voice. The girls were badly frightened, but it did not appear that they had been offered any insult or violence.

Lindgreen's demeanor stamps him, in the opinion of the police, as a mild lunatic. The place where he intercepted the girls was on the highway in plain view of several houses, and is not the kind of place where a man would be so indiscreet as to molest children. A charge of disorderly conduct was entered against him to which he pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for this afternoon.

Policeman Kimball Claims His Wife Maltreated and Abused Him.

HE ASKS A DIVORCE

Wanted Him to Increase His Life Insurance and He Fled.

A divorce case in which the shoe is decidedly on the other foot was filed in district court yesterday afternoon. David P. Kimball, who gives his age as 48 and his wife's age as 42, asks for a divorce from Gertrude Kimball on the grounds of nothing more or less than cruel and inhuman treatment. After three weeks after the wedding the plaintiff sent his two boys by a former standing his wife's conduct and his protestations that such a course was and at other times thereafter she threatened to throw herself into the water, and that she would be better off dead than living with him. Kimball, in the complaint, also great cruelty and abuse, and that he was unable to perform such a rash deed.

In September, 1896, they went to G. A. R. reunion at Minneapolis together, but the plaintiff came home first, and when they were reunited he asked him if he was not sorry some thing had not happened to her. "Which would not be true," the plaintiff replied, "if it had not been for me." He caused him great sorrow and perturbation of mind, and that he was unable to perform such a rash deed.

A little later, says the abused plaintiff, his wife called a boy to her and boarding with them a "skunk," accompanied by the epithet with several forceful and highly colored adjectives. This "vulgar expression caused the plaintiff great shame and indignity."

During the municipal election last February the plaintiff, who is a policeman, was on duty at the polls all day, and it was impossible for him to get home to lunch, so he sent one William Parker to interview Mrs. Kimball with a view to inducing her to send him something to eat. She promptly refused, and when he returned with her and said that if she persisted in her sort of conduct before described he would leave her, she said, "I will not let you go until you have increased your life insurance."

Two days before the plaintiff left his home, he was threatened, he says, with a knife, and when he refused to increase his heart and supplementing it by suggesting that she could easily put something in his coat pocket, he was threatened with a knife into his heart. He says that he was threatened with a knife into his heart, and when he refused to increase his heart and supplementing it by suggesting that she could easily put something in his coat pocket, he was threatened with a knife into his heart.

Nelson Lumber Company Answers the County's Suit.

Answers to the citations sent out by the sheriff to people who have not yet paid this year's personal property taxes have begun to come in to the clerk's office, and two of them were received this morning. The C. N. Nelson Lumber company claims that before the time the assessor made his rounds in the spring of 1896 it had sold all its property to F. Weyerhaeuser, of St. Paul, and F. C. A. Denkmann, of Rock Island, and that it owned no property that could be assessed. It further alleges that the assessment was made by the assessor of Cassia township, and that it purported to be an assessment of the Nelson Lumber company, and that it was made by the assessor of Cassia township, and that it was made by the assessor of Cassia township, and that it was made by the assessor of Cassia township.

New Suits Filed.

Appointed a Receiver.

Judge Moor this morning appointed the Duluth Trust company receiver for the Wells-Mears' Commission company on the petition of T. W. Wain. Attorneys for several of the creditors were present, and there were many names suggested as receivers. Judge Moor said that it did not appear that there was much of any estate, and he would be willing to appoint an administrator, and he did not think that if an administrator was appointed, he would be willing to appoint an administrator, and he did not think that if an administrator was appointed, he would be willing to appoint an administrator.

A Plan Which President Smith Views Unfavorably.

The street railway company, in repairing its tracks on Superior street in a number of places, covered the pavement between the tracks with a very fine gravel. Wheelmen have found that this makes a smooth bicycle path and a number of them have requested President Smith of the board of public works to have the pavement lying between the two tracks covered with gravel from the junction of Superior and Michigan streets to London road. They claim to him that this part of the street is little used by teams and has been practically turned over to the wheelmen, and that it should be made as smooth as possible for their comfort and convenience. The improvement suggested would cost but a trifle, President Smith says, but he is opposed to it, for he believes that part of the street to be very dangerous for riding because of the liability of collision with the street cars. If it were improved as suggested it would be a temptation for more to use it, and accidents would be of more frequent occurrence than at present. Instead of converting it into a bicycle path he would have the council pass an ordinance forbidding wheelmen from riding on that part of the street as they are now prohibited from riding on the sidewalks.

Putting in Lights.

Electric lights are being put in at the Duluth-Superior railway. The work of fencing in the grove has been finished. Tickets will be on sale by H. W. Mayor Truelsen has notified the park board that work on the park system must cease for this season, as the money in the park fund is needed to ward paying interest on the city's bonded indebtedness. A meeting of the board was called for 4 o'clock this afternoon to discuss the situation.

He Changed His Plea.

Ernest O. Linton, who was arrested several days ago on the charge of having pawned a rented bicycle with Julius Cook, of 518 West Superior street, for the sum of $12, changed his plea of not guilty to one of guilty before Judge Edson this morning. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs or be confined in the county jail for sixty days. He went up.
